

The priest says:

Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles:
I leave you peace, my peace I give you.
Look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church,
and grant us the peace and unity of your kingdom
where you live for ever and ever.
Amen.

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

And also with you

The priest may add these or similar words:

Let us offer each other the sign of peace.
All then make an appropriate sign of peace.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of
the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of
the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: grant us peace.

The priest invites us to share in the eucharistic banquet with these words:

This is the Lamb of God
who takes away the sins of the world.
Happy are those who are called to his supper.
Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word and I shall be healed.

Sharing in Holy Communion

In the celebration of the Eucharist Catholics celebrate and participate in a living sign of unity. This unity is unity with Christ, and it is unity with the Catholic Church. What is most easily seen is the unity of those present gathered at a particular time and place, but the still deeper reality made present in the sacramental celebration is their union with the whole of the local Church, united under the Bishop, and the Church universal, united in communion with the Pope.

To our fellow Christians: Because of the nature of the Communion we celebrate at Mass, we are not free ordinarily to invite members of non-Catholic churches and ecclesial bodies not in communion with the Pope to join us in Holy Communion. Sharing in the Eucharist in exceptional circumstances by non-Catholics requires permission of the diocesan bishop and in accordance with the provisions of canon law, (canon 844 no 3, 4). Please pray with us for the healing of division within the Church, the Body of Christ.

To all who are not Christians: We welcome you in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and rejoice to recognize you as members of the family of God, made in the image and likeness of God. We cannot invite you to join us in receiving Holy Communion, but we ask you to pray with us for the peace and unity of the whole human family and for a deeper understanding between those of different faiths.

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven: (All bow)
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures,

We believe in one holy catholic and
