

Open our eyes to the needs of our brothers and sisters; inspire in us words and deeds to comfort those who labour and are burdened.

Make us serve them truly, after the example of Christ and at his command.

And may your Church stand as a living witness to truth and freedom, to justice and peace, that all people may be raised up to a new hope.

EP Various Needs and Occasions IV

O God,
in your silence
every anguished cry is heard;
each person is created in your image, all peoples are precious in your sight.

Receive into your peace the victims of war and persecution and hear the lament of those who mourn their killing.

Keep their memory always before us and rid every heart
of violence and vengeance, that hatred may be banished from the face of the earth and the family of nations brought together in peace.

Almighty and merciful God, to whom alone the secrets of the human heart lie open,
who recognize the just and make
righteous the guilty,
hear our prayers
for your servants in prison, and grant that
through patience and hope they may find relief
in their affliction
and soon return unhindered to their own.

God of every generation, under your loving guidance our lives unfold to maturity in a world that both fascinates and frightens us.

Show us in Jesus and his gospel the way to life in all its fulness.

When confusion and fear cloud our way,
draw us by your gift of hope to take delight in the wonder of creation and to find fulfilment in serving others.

BISHOPS' CONFERENCE OF ENGLAND AND WALES

Ordinary Time Autumn

Because the joy and hope, the struggle and anguish of the people of this age and especially of the poor and those suffering in any way are the joy and hope, the struggle and anguish of Christ's disciples, the Church prays not just for its own needs but for the salvation of the world.

The Bishops of England and Wales invite you to join in the Cycle of Prayer

Please pray for the current intentions, both with your parish community and in your own personal prayers. On some days these intentions will be included in the Prayer of the Faithful at Mass. Also it is hoped that vigils and other prayer services will be held.

This leaflet is one of a series which offers a selection of prayers and texts on the intentions of the Cycle of Prayer which may be used in private or public worship.

Throughout Ordinary Time: Autumn we are asked to pray for these intentions:

THE HARVEST, THE FRUITS OF HUMAN WORK, AND THE REVERENT USE OF CREATION

*By your word,
Lord God,
we and all creatures
are formed, sustained and fed.*

*Teach us to live in peace with the world
your hands have made,
that, as faithful stewards
of your good earth,
we may reverence you
in the works of your creation.*

He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God.

2 Corinthians 9:10-11

*We give you thanks, O Lord, for the fruits that earth has given to benefit the human family and, we pray
that, as the working of your supreme providence
has produced them,
so you may cause the seed of justice and the fruits of charity to spring up in our hearts.*

cf. RM 1357

All wisdom comes from the Lord.
Ecclesiasticus 1:1

Jesus presented himself to the disciples as the only teacher and, at the same time, a patient and faithful friend. He exercised real teaching by means of his whole life.

General Directory for Catechesis 139

*God of all knowledge, whose wisdom unfolds for us
the meaning of the world in which we live, be the inspiration
and the end of all our efforts to know, learn and teach.
Through the seeds of inquiry and wonder which you have implanted, may we continue to grow in your wisdom.*

The Church exists in order to evangelise that is the carrying forth of the Good News to every sector of the human race so that by its strength it may enter in to the hearts of all and renew the human race.

General Directory for Catechesis 46

*O God,
who have sent the power of the Gospel like leaven into the world,
grant that your faithful, whom you have called to live amid the world and its affairs,
may be fervent with the Christian spirit and, through the tasks
they carry out in this present age, may constantly build up your Kingdom.*
